

Scholarships for Pacific Peoples *please follow links for accurate information on grants and scholarships including dates	Link	Description	Open	Closed
Toloa Tertiary Scholarships (STEAM)	https://www.mpp.govt.nz/funding/toloa-tertiary-scholarships/	The Toloa Tertiary Scholarships cover tertiary tuition fees and compulsory course related fees up to $10,000 for 1 year of fulltime study for STEAM-related courses and subjects.	Sept	October
Pacific Education Foundation Scholarships	https://www.education.govt.nz/further-education/information-for-tertiary-students/scholarships/pacific-education-foundation-scholarships-pef/	To be eligible for these scholarships, you must be enrolled in a tertiary institution in New Zealand, be of Pacific Island descent and be a New Zealand citizen or resident. There are two types of scholarships available. Undergrad $5000 and Postgrad $10,000.	January	February
Le Va	https://www.leva.co.nz/training-education/scholarships/	The purpose of Le Va's Futures that Work scholarships and support programme is to grow the capacity and capability of the Pacific mental health and addiction workforce. The Futures that Work scholarships are for those of Pacific Island descent who are enrolled in a relevant mental health or addiction-related qualification.	Open Now	February
Pacific Health Scholarships 2022	https://www.health.govt.nz/our-work/populations/pacific-health/pacific-health-scholarships-2022	The scholarships offer up to $10,000 for medical and dentistry students and up to $5,000 for nursing, midwifery, allied health and all remaining qualifications.	December	February
Toi Ohomai Retention Scholarships	https://www.toiohoma.ac.nz/services/fees-and-finance/scholarships/toi-ohomai-retention-scholarship	This scholarship aims to encourage the retention of Pacific learners into higher levels of tertiary study at Toi Ohomai.	December	January